Sources need to be listed in alphabetical order according to whatever information comes first (depending on the type of source). The entire page is double-spaced including sources.

*Please note the following information about Works Cited:

- 1) This should be the last page of the essay and should be numbered appropriately in the header (along with your last name).
- 2) The entire page is double-spaced, 12 point font in Times New Roman.
- 3) Hanging indents (5 spaces) are used when the source goes on to more than one line. To do hanging indents highlight text, right click, go to paragraph, find special, select hanging, then hit okay.
- 4) Sources are not labeled, numbered, or bulleted.
- 5) No extra spaces between sources.
- 6) Page should be titled Works Cited (centered, same font size, no bold or underlined).
